The Doctor is Dead is a new musical audio drama created by é boylan. A contemporary fantasy for queer imaginations, The Doctor is Dead follows a secret society of trans outcasts living underground. Using their unique abilities to investigate a mysterious empty coffin, our outcasts sing a song of leaving, of grief that becomes giving, of what begins in the end.

The lyrics interrupt: "Grieving for the Doctor, makes us want another. Grieving for the Doctor makes us want a father...."
